Thrill Cushion Range

Make those long hours
comfortable

Corporate leadership often includes intense work schedules, endless meetings, and a sharp mind through it all. The Thrill Cushion Range with its pebbled seat and firm upholstery gives a sense of luxury as soon as you sit in it.

The ridges and the broad chair back keep the back and neck relaxed while always providing ample back and lumbar support.

Thrill Executive

Responsive. Easy to work with. Like your leaders.

Inspiring leaders set the tone for great teamwork and big achievements. Thrill Executive, with its firm cushioning at the back and seat, is designed for long hours of comfortable seating. The CTS mechanism and 3D adjustable armrests make this chair flexible, ergonomic and high on performance and looks.

Adjustable Armrests

3 Way adjustments: Armrests are height adjustable, rotatable and can slide forward and backward.

Elegant Backrest

Stitched vertical lines in the gently curved and tapering backrest lend style. Soft touch fibre fill cushion makes sitting comfortable for long working hours.

Chrome Pedestal

Chrome finish makes this chair the right choice for elite spaces.

Available in high-back, mid-back and visitor variants. The perfect pick for leaders poised to change the world.

Thrill Cushion

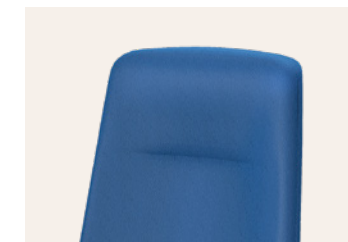

Efficient. Inclusive. Open-layout favourite.

It's classy, comfortable to sit in, easy to adjust and offers excellent back and armrest support. As teams grow, having resources that deliver top performance consistently is every team leader's dream. Thrill Cushion is a chair you can count on for a relaxed sitting experience and seamless movements, every single time.

Height Adjustable

Comfort adjustment: Can be lowered or raised to ensure arms and shoulders are supported at all times.

Smooth Backrest

Wide smooth back brings a glow to the chair, and offers enhanced comfort.

Nylon Pedestal

Nylon pedestal makes this chair durable and easy to maintain.

Available in high-back, mid-back and visitor variants. For men and women in the war-room, leading teams to victory!

Thrill Mesh Range

Adjustability you can trust!

Organisations grow when members of the team trust each other and prove they are trustworthy. This is a role that Thrill Mesh chairs play well. They are flexible, adaptive and truly trustworthy.

Thrill Mesh Range, comprising Thrill Mesh Plus and Thrill Mesh, has been conceptualized as a high-performance task chair with ample back support and ease of movement integrated into the design. Mesh makes the chair more breathable.

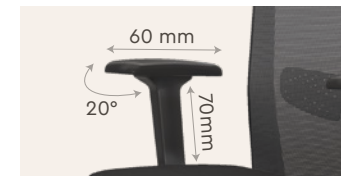

Available in high-back and mid-back variants. For employees who transform corporate visions into reality.

Thrill Mesh Plus

Top performers need cheerleaders!

It's the little things that let your people know you care. The Thrill Mesh Plus with its height-adjustable lumbar support, armrest and headrest is a great way to do that. For users who collaborate, reach out and set the pace of your organisation, Thrill Mesh Plus delivers more than just ergonomic seating. It is loaded with features, looks that make heads turn and performance that will impress for years!

3d Adjustable Armrest

The armrest is equipped for height, depth and pivot movements, allowing the user to rest the elbows and hands at all times.

Height-Adjustable Headrest

The height-adjustable gliding headrest supports the user's head at various heights and angles. The retrofit headrest provides the user with optimal head support when reclining.

Adjustable Lumbar Support

Whether you wish to sit or recline in your favourite posture, Thrill Mesh chairs with height-adjustable lumbar support are designed to evenly support your back.

Widest Back

Wide mesh back for shoulder support, with thoughtful design that minimizes the discomfort caused by the backrest frame touching the body.

Soft Contours

Gentle knitted fabric contours of the chair make sitting a pleasure. There are no sharp edges to deal with while tilting and moving.

Hammock Feel

Enjoy the laid-back feel as the Mesh lets your shoulders sink back in absolute comfort.

Perforated for Airflow

Every little detail has been taken care of. The lumbar pad has been designed as a perforated element to increase airflow and enhance comfort during long hours of sitting.

Chrome Pedestal

Chrome finish makes this chair the right choice for elite spaces.

Available in high-back variant. Inspiring people to creativity, passion, and achievement.

Thrill Mesh

Designed to empower

Ease of movement, flexibility, and body support is key to ensuring minimal fatigue during hours of intense work. Thrill Mesh chair with its soft smooth surface and broad mesh back supports the movement of hands and user comfort.

Users can personalize the chair with the height-adjustable lumbar support. The perforated lumbar pad and the knitted fabric of the seat and back let the chair breathe. The 1D adjustable armrest allows for ergonomic placement of the arm, and better work postures.

Height Adjustable

Comfort adjustment: Can be lowered or raised to ensure arms and shoulders are supported at all times.

Mesh Backrest

Wide mesh back allows airflow, offering enhanced comfort during work.

Nylon Pedestal

Nylon pedestal makes this chair durable and easy to maintain.

Available in mid-back variant. For those happy employees dedicated to keeping your customers happy.

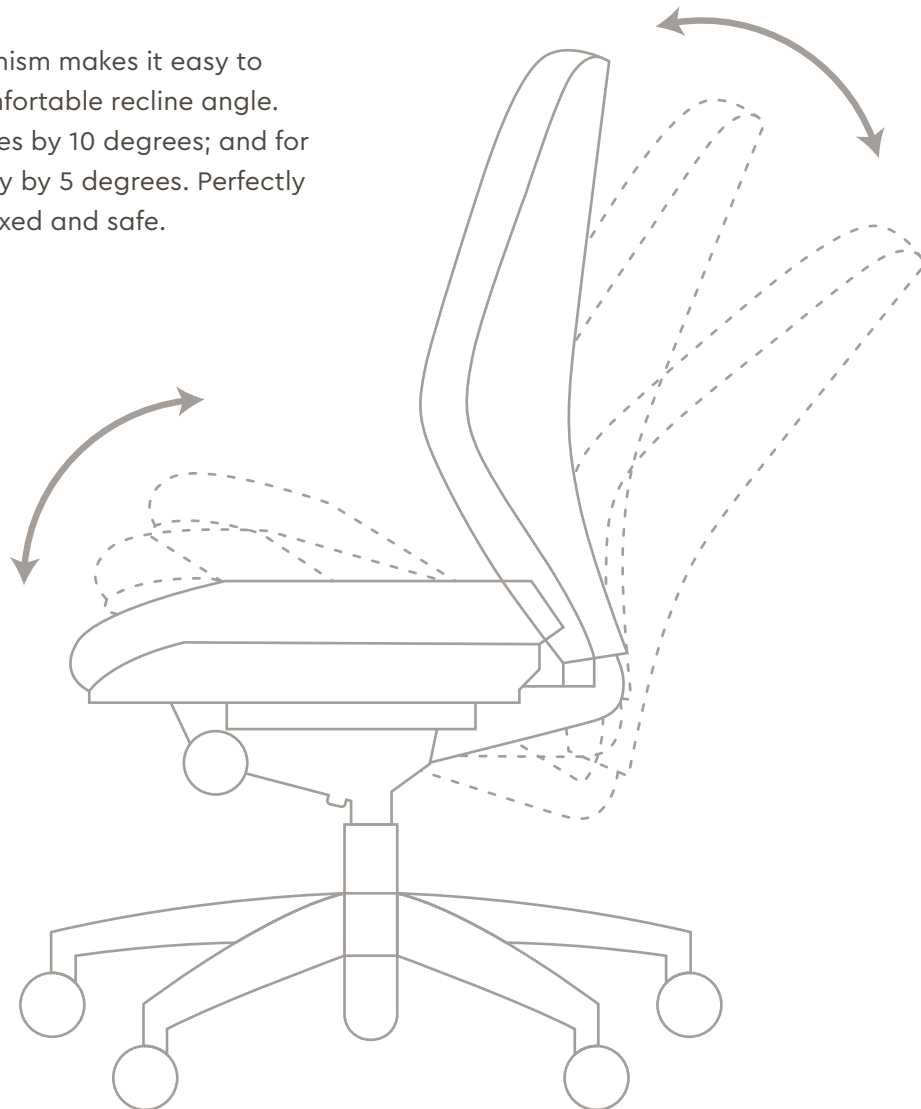

A Closer Look

Some chairs are designed for work, some are designed for style. And yet others intended for luxury and comfort. Thrill is designed to please!

Thrill Executive and Thrill Cushion are available in two variants each: high back & full back. Designed to Thrill the eye, the cushioned seat and back bring in a sense of luxury, comfort, and aesthetics to the workday experience.

Centre tilt synchro mechanism

This multi-position mechanism makes it easy to lock the backrest in a comfortable recline angle. For comfort the back moves by 10 degrees; and for safety, the seat moves only by 5 degrees. Perfectly designed to keep you relaxed and safe.
